Canada: Then and Now

Main Course: Compare and contrast Canada with the United States of America. Make sure you are thorough with your analysis. Use the 8 stands as a guide to your response.

Appetizer #1: Write a persuasive letter to the provincial government of Quebec. As a citizen of Quebec explain why you are either a "separatist" or in favor of keeping the province as part of Dominion of Canada.

Appetizer # 2: Create a travel brochure of a Canadian province or territory. Be sure to include some of its history and attractions, as well as illustrations, and persuasive language. You may work in a group of up to 3 students for this appetizer.

Appetizer # 3: Who are the Acadians and Metis? Explain some similarities in each group's past.

Appetizer # 4 If you could visit a Canadian province or territory, which one would it be? Describe and /or illustrate some reasons for your choice.

Dessert: Draw a map of Canada. Put at least one symbol or picture in each province and territory illustrating an important feature that would be found there. For example, Ontario could have a small illustration of the Hockey Hall of Fame.
