Summer Reading List:
Oldies But Goodies

The following are a group of books that are old favorites, series books and books by your favorite authors. Please encourage your children to read all summer long. Here are a few reading tips that can help them become successful readers:

• Find a favorite place to read	• Encourage reading at least 45 minutes a day
• Pick a quiet time of the day	• Find a common time to read with parents/siblings, etc.
• Take books with you on trips	• Have your own personal reading logs
• Read before bedtime	• Share the books that you loved to read when your child's age
• Play reading games: reading license plates, menus, etc.	• Visit your local library and bookstore and check the grade levels with the librarian
• Find out when there are storytelling events in your neighborhood	• Have your own personal reading logs
• Write a letter to your favorite author	• Find out more about the author's life via the internet.
